First login to GSM web site gmsAdministrator

The screenshot shows the website interface for the Geological Society of Minnesota. At the top, there is a search bar and user information: "0 / 1 Hello gmsAdministrator Log out". Below this is a banner for "ROCK TYPES" featuring a geological cross-section diagram with labels: "sandstone and shale", "iron-formation", "glacial and stream sediments", "graywacke and slate", "sandstone, dolostone, and shale", "metamorphic and plutonic rocks", and "volcanic and sedimentary rocks". A "fault" is also indicated. The diagram is labeled "NORTH-CENTRAL" and "SOUTHEAST".

On the left is the logo of the Geological Society of Minnesota, established in 1938. Below the banner is a navigation menu with the following items: "Member Directory", "Add Item", "Board Documents", "Video Library", "Home", "Events", "Members", "Board", "Contact". The "Board" menu is expanded, showing a list of options: "Treasurer Reports", "List Event Notices", "Board Reports", "Booth Setup", "Update Newsletter", "Documentation", "Request code for virtual lecture", "Update Ask GSM link", and "WebForm". A red arrow points to the "Update Ask GSM link" option. A blue callout box next to it contains the text: "Click 'Update Ask GSM link'".

The main content area on the left has a heading "Welcome to the Geological Society of Minnesota" and a paragraph: "The Geological Society of Minnesota is dedicated to promote public interest and to support geology at the University of Minnesota, conduct research, maintain a media library, publish relevant geological markers throughout the state." Below this is a section titled "GSM Seminars" with a paragraph: "GSM's seminars with PowerPoint presentations are presented by leading professionals in their fields and are aimed at learning. The sessions follows each seminars. The labs, also free and open to the public, demonstrate the ideas and principles of geology and earth science." At the bottom, there is a paragraph: "The schedule of seminars and labs for 2020-2021 here. Printable version of schedule of seminars and Labs click here. Our schedule is planned over 6 months in advance, so changes may occur, especially in this pandemic year. Always check the web site shortly before each lecture for the latest seminar information."
